INTRUDERS POLICY

We believe it is essential to have in place exceptional school security systems to protect pupils, school personnel, visitors and equipment. Parents need to feel confident that everything has been done to create a safe and secure working environment for their children. Our principal aim is to ensure the personal safety of the whole school community. We are aware that all members of the school community are vulnerable to assault from intruders while in the school building or school grounds.

We believe that a person or a group of people found on the school premises who have not followed correct visitor procedures can best be described as intruders. In such a situation school personnel are advised to assess whether the intruder is or is not a security risk before challenging the individual/s to establish their identity and the purpose of their 'visit'. School personnel must be aware that intruders might be visitors with legitimate school business or they may be individuals who may pose a security risk.

School personnel have a duty to assist in the personal safety of the whole school community by dealing with all suspicious persons who appear on the school premises or grounds in a calm non-confrontational manner. We have a duty to make the general public aware that the school is not a public place to which they are entitled to have access. Any person who enters without permission is a trespasser and should be asked to leave. However, trespass is not a criminal offence but if a trespasser refuses to leave the school premises, or re-enters after being asked to leave or causes a disturbance could be committing a criminal offence under section 547 of the Education Act 1996.

Aims

- To ensure the personal safety of the whole school community by having in place procedures to deal with intruders to the school building or school grounds. □ To work with other schools to share good practice in order to improve this policy.

Security Procedures in case of Intruders – Perryfields Primary PRU

Please see below information regarding actions to take if intruders are on site:

1. The office will ring the telephone extension line for the Headteacher's office or try to locate him (P Hines) if he is not in his office. If the Headteacher (PHines) is off site the Deputy Headteacher (R Harrison) will lead the implementation of security procedures
2. The Headteacher, or his Deputy in his absence will then inform nearby classes in order of need – normally due to the layout of the building this would be Andy Strangeway's, Rob Harrison's and Matt Bourne's in that order. The Headteacher or his Deputy will make sure everyone on site is accounted for.
3. Doors and windows are to be shut and locked and barricaded as necessary.
4. The police will be called by the office. All pupils and staff to remain in the classrooms until told otherwise.

The chances of entry to school are limited given the locking of external doors. Identification will be requested from people the office do not recognise before they are permitted to enter the school building.
